

NORTH CAROLINA MUSEUM OF ART

Lowe's Pavilion Museum Park, North Carolina Museum of Art

Designed and fabricated by Mike Cindric and Vincent Petrarca

Please join us at a reception to celebrate a new Art-in-Service project in the Museum Park at the North Carolina Museum of Art

Thursday, September 6, 2007
4:30 to 6:30 pm

The Lowe's Pavilion is made possible by the generous support of the Lowe's Charitable and Educational Foundation

Directions

Drive in the main entrance of the North Carolina Museum of Art at 2110 Blue Ridge Road, follow the driveway left and park in the main visitor lot. Walk to back end of the parking lot and enter the Museum Park on the paved trail. The trail will go past the pond and up a hill to the pavilion, just beyond the grove of trees (a 5 minute walk).

Additional support for this project has been provided by Tonic Design & Tonic Construction; Design Dimension; Mary Ann and Greg Poole; Gregory Poole Equipment Company; S.T. Wooten Corporation; Stokes Welding and Erection; Brandon Watkins Steel Fabrication; Lozano Framing; Talbert's Building Supply; Ron Gipson Roofing; and Raleigh Sheet Metal

The artists were assisted on this project by Matt Fornaro, Robby Johnston, David Fish, Taylor Medlin, Leslie Bloem, Davis Hammer, Jeff Watson, Ryan Hussey, Brad Payne, Chuck Samuels, and Marianne Prince.

Questions? Contact Kathryn Asad, NCMA, (919) 664-6742