

TRANSIT

Is Wake County Ready for It?

A public forum to discuss the future of transit in Wake County and the Triangle

Thursday, June 26, 2008

7 – 9:30 pm

(register 6:30 pm)

NCSU McKimmon Center

Hosted by the following Community Partners:

Downtown Housing Improvement Corp., North Carolina Conservation Network, Raleigh-Wake Citizens Association, Capital Group Sierra Club, Society for Women Environmental Professionals, WakeUP Wake County, WTS NC Triangle Chapter

Transit Forum Sponsors

Community Leaders

Dean Debnam
Triangle Community Foundation

Community Builders

Capitol Broadcasting Company
Carolina Asphalt Pavement Association
Carolina Cottage Company
NC Go!
PBS&J
Stewart Engineering

Community Supporters

Community United Church of Christ –
Justice in a Changing Climate
Greg and Anita Sawhney Flynn
Anne S. Franklin
Kimley-Horn

Community Supporters

Louis Berger Group
North Carolina League of Municipalities
Stan Norwalk
Parsons Brinckerhoff
Mack Paul
Josh and Anna Stein
Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Raleigh Social Action Committee
Carter Worthy
York Properties

Forum highlights:

- Keynote speaker: Carol Coletta, CEO - CEO for Cities and host of NPR syndicated program, Smart Cities, and national urbanism expert
“By choice or by chance. How can transit help us plan for a future of growth?”
- Keith Parker, CEO, Charlotte Area Transit System
“The Charlotte Transit Story.”
- Discussion by community business leaders on how transit can provide economic opportunities for Wake County
- Overview of new proposal for regional transit in Wake and the Triangle

The purpose of the forum is to discuss the opportunities and potential of transit in Wake County and the Triangle. Please come learn, ask questions and participate in the community discussion!

Register to attend forum (requested but not required):
at www.wakeupwakecounty.com Details on official forum agenda and speakers will be posted as finalized.

Contact: Jennifer Lewis, 280-7607, Jcl5p@hotmail.com
Karen Rindge, 828-3833, krindge@earthlink.net